

Paula Love, MS, MCC
Executive & Leadership Coaching
Organization Development (OD)
Facilitator & Trainer

Paula Love, Vice President of Catalyst Coaching & Training, is an experienced professional with proven leadership skills in both internal & external consulting environments, including executive consulting & coaching, organization development & building collaborative partnerships & alliances.

She has extensive experience in several different industry sectors such as aerospace, information technology, finance & travel, leading structural change in organizations & promoting individual excellence at C-level posts. Paula combines analytical & intuitive skills to quickly analyze different business cultures, anticipate organizational needs & design & deliver innovative consulting interventions.

Paula's commitment to building collaborative partnerships & alliances produces high impact, high return results. At the center of her executive coaching practice, Paula focuses on the powerful belief that leadership occurs in the context of relationship. She has shown newly appointed executives how to garner their team's support & loyalty to quickly organize around organizational objectives & assists recently placed executives to integrate quickly into new business cultures so they can act powerfully in an unfamiliar environment. As a direct result of her coaching, executive clients achieved desired promotions.

In addition to executives, Paula works with the organization's leadership, direct reports, partners & customer representatives to align organizational outcomes & coordinate actions toward achieving objectives, while overcoming cultural & organizational barriers.

Paula has a coaching certification from The Newfield Group & is certified as a Master Coach by the International Coach Federation. She also holds a certification as Master Somatic Coach from Strozzi Institute & a Master Practitioner Certification in Neuro-Linguistic Programming. She has an MS in counseling & a B.A. in psychology from San Francisco State University.
